We Care, We Prepare, We Prosper

Wednesday, 1 December 2021 | 1.30PM – 5.15PM (GMT+8)

Online (WebEx)

Background

The ASEAN Financial Literacy Drive was first introduced during Brunei Darussalam's 2013 ASEAN Chairmanship. Following this, the region's focus shifted from financial literacy to financial inclusion in order to cater to the ASEAN's need. In recent years, the region has witnessed rapid developments in the digital space and, against this backdrop, the Financial Literacy Drive is revived under Brunei Darussalam's 2021 ASEAN Chairmanship.

Description

The ASEAN Financial Literacy Conference (the Conference) is a Priority Economic Deliverable (PED) under Brunei Darussalam's 2021 ASEAN Chairmanship and is centered around the Chairmanship theme of 'We Care, We Prepare, We Prosper'. The Conference will take the form of a high-level seminar involving both senior decision makers, influencers and thought leaders public and private sectors. It aims to showcase practical tools for developing financial literacy policies that can assist policy makers and industry players in bridging financial literacy and advancements in technology. This is particularly important in the context of responding to COVID-19 and driving a sustainable and inclusive future economic model. The conference will also consider including hard to reach groups and Micro, Small and Medium-sized Enterprises.

Theme

The three focus areas of the high-level seminar will be on financial consumer protection, trust and education. Discussion topics as follows:

1. "We Care, We Prepare: Financial Consumer Protection, Building Trust and Education"
2. "Resilient Financial Ecosystems: How can digitalization ensure inclusivity?"
3. "Building ASEAN digitally: Collaborating on Inclusive Financial Literacy"
